

FLIGHTLINE

AMA Youth E-Newsletter

Monday, December 26, 2016

Forward to a Friend >

Camp AMA dates announced

Join Andrew Jesky, Nick Maxwell, and RJ Gritter June 11-17, 2017, for instruction and fun at the International Aeromodeling Center, Muncie IN. The AMA Youth Ambassadors will help Camp AMA attendees work on techniques, as well as show them a few flight demonstrations. Camp AMA accepts pilots between the ages of 13 and 19. Don't miss out!

learn more >

Drone Camp at AMA Expo West

We are proud to welcome Drone Camp to AMA Expo West! Drone Camp will be running Try-N-Fly sessions in the Education Area on Saturday and Sunday January 7-8, 2017. Learn how to build, set up, fly, and even do tricks with a drone in hands-on sessions with the pilots from Drone Camp. Sessions are limited to 20 people, ages 7 to 19. RSVP today!

check it out >

UAS4Stem regional locations set

The regional UAS4STEM contest locations for 2017 are Washington, D.C.; Lakeland FL; San Diego; Detroit; New York; Dallas; Seattle; Minneapolis MN; and St. Louis. Dates are still being finalized, but if you live near a regional site, take advantage and sign up right away!

learn more >

Free UAS 4 Public Safety course at AMA Expo West

The Academy of Model Aeronautics would like to invite you to attend our Free UAS 4 Public Safety course overview Friday, January 6, from 3 to 5 p.m. The AMA Education department has developed a hands-on training course that provides public safety officers the knowledge needed to use UAS technology safely and effectively in their daily jobs.

learn more >

Don't forget - AMA youth scholarships available

Approximately $40,000 in endowments and scholarships are available for distribution on the basis of AMA aeromodeling activities, scholastic achievement, and citizenship. Apply now to receive money for college.

learn more >

Club TAG grant applications being accepted

Would your club like the opportunity to earn up to $1,000 to help it host an event that would bring model aviation to your community? If the answer is yes, apply for a Take off And Grow (TAG) grant before February 1, 2017.

learn more >

Our Partners

websites that rock!

